

Learning Objectives

Identify various techniques and resources to prepare the child for adoption.

Recognize grief and loss issues that affect the child, families, and you.

Identify children's language and behaviors in relation to the adoption preparation process.

Develop a preparation plan specific to the child's developmental level, interests and history.

Demonstrate how to engage the child and the significant people involved with the child.