

As with Offender Treatment, Family Treatment will:

1. Will be mandated
2. Will have limited confidentiality
3. Will focus on offense-specific aspects as well as general dysfunction
4. Will include a value stance by the therapist on setting limits, and being active and directive
5. Will expand concept of family (if appropriate) to include extended family members, foster parents, group home parents, other significant others (for example, girlfriend or boyfriend of perpetrator)
