

Parents' Role

- Parents can inform the child's lawyer and caseworker about the child's life and capabilities.
- Parents can work with materials such as workbooks provided by the caseworker to assist in preparation.
- Parents can work with children on stress management techniques.
- Parent can approach the upcoming court appearances with a calm and confident attitude.

