

visitation

- Single most important factor in maintaining the relationship between the child and the parent(s).
- Enhances children's emotional well-being.
- Improve parent's positive feelings about the placement.
- Decreases parent's worries about their children.
- Associated with achieving permanency and decreasing time in care.