

Concurrent Planning

Working intensively toward reunification of a child with his or her own family while, at the same time, developing an alternative “back up” plan for the child’s permanency