

SIBLINGS

One-third of a national sample of children and youth have witnessed victimization indirectly in the course of a study year.

(This statistic is not unique to child sexual abuse, but it does include child sexual victimization.)