

Beginning the Investigation

 The first step of investigation should include a review of the intake report and all other available information and the development of a plan for the investigation.

 The plan should:

-  list the persons to be interviewed
-  the order of contacts
-  the nature of the information to be gathered from each interviewee
-  possible interview questions