

✧ Interview Protocol ✧

- ensures that all family members are involved and that information gathering is thorough;
- increases the accuracy in the nature of the information gathered;
- reduces parental denial and resistance;
- increases worker control over the process;
- improves the capacity of the worker to collaborate with other disciplines; and
- increases staff control and confidence in the initial investigation conclusions.