

Protective Services

Those services and activities provided by the Department of Public Welfare and each county agency for children who are abused or are alleged to be in need of protection under the CPSL.

Child Protective Services

Services and activities for child abuse cases.

General Protective Services

Services and activities for nonabuse cases requiring protective services.