

Record Keeping

- ✘ Include dates, times, and any other general data that may be important to set the context of the event in that this information may become critical at a later point.
- ✘ Avoid value statements and include specific descriptions instead.
- ✘ Identify people with whom the worker spoke since the names may be important later.