

3 CRITERIA FOR SUICIDE RELATED LITIGATION

Courts have tended to review 3 criteria in determining malpractice negligence in cases of suicide:

- failure to determine the imminence of the suicidal behavior
- if high risk suicide factors were identified and appropriate steps taken
- thoroughness of the treatment plan and its implementation