

Learning Objectives:

Participants will be able to:

1. Define Family Group Decision Making.
2. Identify the FGDM values and beliefs.
3. Recognize the advantages that FGDM has for children, families, communities, and helping professionals.
4. Determine what makes FGDM unique among other interventions.
5. Describe the key steps for implementing FGDM.
6. Ascertain the critical partners necessary for successful implementation of FGDM.

