

Solution-Building Questions

1. Tell me about the times when this problem is a little bit better?
2. How did you make this happen?
3. What else?
4. What are you doing differently during those times when things are a little bit better?
5. What would your best friend (mother, child, etc) tell you when things are going a little bit better for you?