

Mental Health Statistics

Approximately 1 in 5 children/adolescents experience signs and symptoms of mental health disorders, but only about 5% of children experience what professionals call “extreme functional impairment.

Levels of Functional Impairment

