

What Are My Filters?

Read each question and answer it with the first thought that comes to your mind.

	YES	NO	SOMETIMES
1. I believe that families need fathers.
2. I equate commitment with marriage.
3. I believe children should get to know their father.
4. I believe my clients are often biased about certain issues.
5. I believe children need a home with both a mother and a father to grow up happy.
6. I believe the physical absence of the father from the home is a significant problem facing America.
7. I believe that the number of children born to single parents is either a "serious" or "critical" social problem.
8. I believe children with an incarcerated father are better off if they do not visit him in prison.
9. I believe mothers usually have better parenting skills than fathers.			