

Competencies

306-1: The Child Welfare Professional understands the roles and responsibilities of the Child Welfare agency and other community child and family service agencies in the identification, assessment, and planning of treatment for child abuse/neglect.

306-2: The Child Welfare Professional is able to work collaboratively and cooperatively with community agencies in a team approach to service delivery.

306-3: The Child Welfare Professional knows and can implement the basic components of an effective team to assure coordinated and timely services to families and children including a clear mission, common goals and identify, shared accountability for outcomes, interdependence, collaborative decision making.