

STRENGTHS AND DYSFUNCTION:

→ Strengths are behaviors that promote successful adaptation to life's changing circumstances.

→ Dysfunction is less adaptive or unproductive responses to life's changing circumstances.

→ Understanding the meaning of these behaviors in their cultural context is essential to a fair and balanced family assessment.