

☀ Definition of Family ☀

A family, for the purpose of training, is anyone who is the caregiver of a child whether or not there is a blood or a legal relationship, or formalized or informal adoptive or foster care; a family is to be understood in the broadest context.