

Relapse Triggers Defined

A life event or action that causes a person to begin using drugs and alcohol, at times either traumatic or painful. Usually unplanned for or not faced before.

