

Definition Concurrent Planning

Working intensively toward reunification of a child with his or her own family while, at the same time, developing an alternative “back-up” plan for the child’s permanency.

