

PUNCTUATION “RACER”

(Punctuation rules exercise)

Directions: At a signal by the trainer, indicate C (correct) or I (incorrect) for as many of the following sentences as possible. This is a time trial, and you have only three minute.

1. Jared purchased a CD player for his Jeep (Jeep is a popular 4-wheel drive vehicle.) and installed it the next morning.
2. M.A.S.H. stands for Mobile Army Surgical Hospital.
3. Unfortunately, the door to the kennel had been left open.
4. It felt good to be home, the day had drained me.
5. Their bags packed, the children sat in the agency van.
6. Dr. Irwin Corley, Jr., completed the CY-47 as requested.
7. The newlyweds needed furniture; appliances; and dishware.
8. The worker must complete a number of assessment forms: the risk assessment scale, the safety assessment form, the family interview packet, and the violence predictor scale.
9. I borrowed my mother-in-law’s car to make the trip.
10. Supervisory reviews must occur at ten, twenty, and thirty-day points of the investigation.
11. The police told us our antique chairs had been re-covered.
12. The accident-a relatively minor fender bender-did no damage to the heavy-duty pick-up truck.
13. He’s usually upbeat, and tends to see the glass two-thirds full.
14. He didn’t react well to the allegation. He called me a b*.
15. “Who Want’s To Be a Millionaire” is certainly a hit TV show!!

