

Test Your Writing Knowledge

(Read the statements below. Circle any that are correct. If incorrect, write the appropriate word or phrase.)

1. A women's place is now wherever she wants it to be.
2. In making major case decisions you sometimes feel your on your own.
3. We have an assortment of combs for physically active people with unbreakable teeth.
4. After the 5K race, Sylvia could not hardly breathe.
5. It is often the case that child victims of assault need long term counseling.
6. The abuse was witnessed by John's aunt.
7. Irregardless, its your duty to report the incident.
8. Risk is assessed by rating each of it's 15 factors
9. The supervisor and I seen the report before the hearing.
10. Being old and dog-eared, I was able to purchase the book for $2.00.
11. I have discussed how to fill the case folders with staff.
12. They came on foot, by car, and bicycle.
13. I don't plan to check Service Plans, or Risk Assessments, or dictation.
14. Would it be possible for you and I to go to the hearing?
15. Bill was adverse to the new program for awhile.