

GRAMMAR “FIX IT” EXERCISE

1. Identification of these risk factors have remained difficult.
2. One in five cases contain more than three high risk factors.
3. Writing a report and submitting it to court is a difficult task for new caseworkers.
4. Bacon and eggs are a standard breakfast in some parts of the country.
5. Every man, woman, and child on our caseload are given full evaluations and assessments.
6. The Smith family were the last to be seen by the worker.
7. Measles are a preventable disease.
8. The Democratic party has nominated their candidate.
9. In spring, in summer, and fall, the number of neglect reports rise.
10. Strolling down the lane, the cottage came into view.
11. I couldn't see how it wasn't a high risk case.

Adapted from Write Right, Jan Venolia