

VIGNETTE #1

You are a foster parent caring for a 4-year-old child with hydrocephalus. The child is very eager to play with and mimic the activities of his foster brother. The children are particularly fond of tricycle riding.

What interventions/guidance can you provide to assist this child in being involved with normal play activity?