

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

Learning Objectives:

Participants will be able to:

- Determine their personal values and biases regarding issues of addiction and in their work with substance abusing families.
- Define major terms and concepts related to addiction.
- Discuss the psychological, physiological and sociological impact of addiction on individuals and families.
- Define the stages of addiction and the stages of change.
- Determine the issues of safety and risk to substance abusing families.
- Transfer their knowledge and skills to families, supervisees, other service professionals.
- Assess staff training needs and provide appropriate resources for learning
- Use various techniques to assist workers in gaining skills and knowledge including supervision, unit meetings, role modeling and referrals to alternative training resources

