

Learning Objectives

After this training, you will be able to:

- √ Describe the unique properties of skin of color and the major differences between skin of color and White skin;
- √ Determine how to apply a fundamental skin-care routine for babies and children in their care, including how to choose appropriate skin cleansing and moisturizing products;
- √ Apply a 7-step care process for children's hair and a basic hair-care regiment for infants;
- √ Recognize the critical tools needed for styling kinky and curly hair;

Learning Objectives continued...

- √ Identify and apply fundamental steps in achieving various styling techniques for children's hair; and
- √ Identify minor skin disorders more prevalent to African American and Biracial children as well as treatment recommendations.

