

FAMILY

A family, for the purpose of training, is anyone who is the caregiver of a child whether or not there is a blood relationship, or a legal relationship, formalized or informal adoption/substitute care, a family is to be understood in the broadest context.

