

INTRODUCTION BINGO

...has earned a Bachelor of Social Work Degree.	...has testified in civil court.	...knows an adoptive family from social connections.	...exercises at least 3 times a week for 20 minutes.	...knows what "ASFA" means.
...plans to work in child welfare as a career.	...majored in education in college.	...regularly reads a professional journal.	...knows a foster family from social connections.	...uses one or more stress management strategies.
...has worked in another type of social services.	...knows what "CFSR" means.	Put Your Name Here:	...has earned a Master of Social Work Degree.	...knows a child who has been physically neglected.
...has read one of David Pelzer's books.	...knows a child who has been physically abused.	...has a friend who is from another culture.	...is a parent or step-parent.	...majored in criminal justice in college.
...knows a child who has been sexually abused.	...has an Associates Degree.	...has observed a child custody hearing.	...has worked in a "blue (or pink) collar" job.	...has one or more active hobbies.

Meet the other trainees & discuss these 24 items. Put the name of a person who matches the item in each box. Call out "bingo" when you have a complete row, column, diagonal, four corners, or full card. Each person can sign only 2 squares on your card. You can sign only one box plus where you put your name on your card.