

Purpose of Risk Assessment

Risk assessment is designed to provide agency staff with a structured means to express their analysis of conditions and circumstances, which contribute to the risk of repeated child abuse and neglect. Structured and recorded risk assessment provides caseworkers with an empirical basis for evaluating and weighing risk factors and for making child protection and case planning decisions.