

Safe Versus Unsafe

Safe:

There are no immediate safety threats stemming from caretakers' actions or inactions or the protective factors of the family are able to prevent these actions or inactions.

Unsafe:

Caretakers' actions or inactions present immediate safety threats to a vulnerable child and the family's accessible protective factors are insufficient to prevent these actions or inactions.