

Curriculum and Instructional Specialist # 0111421
Position located in Mechanicsburg, PA

The Curriculum and Instructional Specialist will be responsible for the development of curriculum and preparation of trainers for The Pennsylvania Child Welfare Training Program. Master's degree preferred or a Bachelor's degree in training and development, adult education, social work, counseling, psychology, or closely related field required.

Prefer three years working in public child welfare and/or related human service field. Must have experience in curriculum development and training design.

Note: Act 33 Clearances required for employment. For full consideration, apply online at www.pittsource.com job number # 0111421 by May 22, 2006.

SAMPLE