

Curriculum and Instructional Specialist
Position located in
Mechanicsburg, PA

The Curriculum and Instructional Specialist will be responsible for the development of curriculum and preparation of trainers for the Pennsylvania Child Welfare Training Program (Training Program). The Curriculum and Instructional Specialist functions as a team member for the Curriculum Development Department of the Training Program.

Master's degree preferred or a Bachelor's degree in training and development, adult education, social work, counseling, psychology, or closely related field required. Excellent interpersonal skills, writing skills, collaboration skills, problem-solving skills, planning/organizing skills and facilitation skills required. Must have competency in adult education and training design, delivery and evaluation. Knowledge of the Pennsylvania Child Welfare Practice Standards and public child welfare practice is preferred.

Minimum of five years experience in curriculum development and training design required. Child welfare and/or related human service field experience is strongly preferred. Experience delivering training programs and facilitating groups strongly preferred.

Note: Position is located in Mechanicsburg, PA.**

Act 33 Clearances required for employment.**

For full consideration, apply online at www.pittsource.com and attach a cover letter, resume, and a written curriculum sample by January 31, 2007**

University of Pittsburgh

Job Number 0111421

Applications are accepted via PittSource only at:
www.pittsource.com

We value and support workforce diversity. AA/EOE

HARRISBURG PATRIOT NEWS

Size: 2 (2.1875") x 4.5"

Issue: 1-7-07

D/L: 1-4-07

Cost: $1,386.00

This cost includes 7 days online with pennlive.com.

Additional webs:

higheredjobs.com
$145.00/60 days

pacareerlink
$25.00/30