

The Pennsylvania Child Welfare Training Program

The Pennsylvania Child Welfare Training Program is a collaborative effort of the University of Pittsburgh, School of Social Work, the Pennsylvania Department of Public Welfare, and the Pennsylvania Children and Youth Administrators.

It was established to train direct service workers, supervisors, administrators, and foster parents in providing social services to abused and neglected children and their families.

The Training Program is centrally managed and regionally administered by the University of Pittsburgh, School of Social Work.

Our Mission:

The Pennsylvania Child Welfare Training Program is a national leader in advocating for an enhanced quality of life for Pennsylvania's children, youth and families. In partnership with families, communities, as well as public and private agencies, we prepare and support exceptional Child Welfare Professionals and systems through education, research, and a commitment to best practice.

The Pennsylvania Child Welfare Training Program is made possible through grant funds from the Department of Public Welfare to the Univer-

The Pennsylvania Child Welfare Training Program

You are invited to attend:

521 Strength-Based, Solution-Focused Supervision

Strength-Based, Solution-Focused Supervision

By modeling strength-based, solution-focused values and skills in their interaction with workers, supervisors can greatly assist workers in developing and using these values and skills in their work with client families. This workshop provides child welfare supervisors with a theoretical framework and useful strategies for incorporating strength-based, solution-focused concepts and skills into the supervision process.

This workshop is eligible for 6 hours of training credit, as well as 6 hours of continuing education credits for LSW and LCSW.

6 continuing education credits are available for licensed social workers who need to meet their continuing education ethics requirements.

Who Should Attend?

Child Welfare Professionals seeking to continue their knowledge relating to ethical decision-making, specifically as it relates to child welfare practice, engagement, and assuring child safety, well-being and permanency.
